For Essay writing help, go to
HEIMLER'S HISTORY
HEIMLERSHISTORY.COM

ANSWERS A WORLD POWER

Guiding Question:	Answers from Video:	Additional Evidence/Examples
What steps did the US take in an attempt to gain power and respect on the world stage? Consider specific examples of trade, territorial expansion, and war.	Trade: Embargo Act and Non-Intercourse Act attempted to force Britain and France to respect US neutrality. This ultimately harmed the US economy. Territory: Adams-Onis Treaty gave US control of Florida; Anglo-American Convention of 1818 split control of Oregon between the US and Britain. War: US went to war with Britain over British disrespect for US neutrality and British policies of impressment. The war effectively ended in stalemate but gave US a sense of national pride.	• Louisiana Purchase • Barbary Wars to ensure safe passage of US ships in Mediterranean • Removal of Indigenous Americans to lands west of the Mississippi • Era of Good Feelings highlighted increased nationalism
How did the Monroe Doctrine shape foreign policy and reflect America's changing status on the world stage?	Declared the Western Hemisphere off-limits to European colonization Warned against European interference in Americas and promoted US neutrality in European affairs Reflected growing confidence and assertion of US power after War of 1812	• Latin American republics were declaring independence from Spain • Later used to justify US intervention in Latin America

© Heimler's History™ Please do not share or post online. Authorized use for school year 2025-2026.
*Advanced Placement® and AP® are trademarks registered and/or owned by the College Board, which was not involved in the production of, and does not endorse, this product.

For Essay writing help, go to
HEIMLER'S HISTORY
HEIMLERSHISTORY.COM

ANSWERS A MODERN ECONOMY

Guiding Question:	Answers from Video:	Additional Evidence/Examples
What was the Market Revolution and how did it transform the U.S. economy?	Transition from subsistence economy to a market economy of mass produced goods. Increased production, urbanization, and regional specialization	• Growth of corporations/private industries • Rise of a national market • Expansion of credit and banking systems
What were the four main causes of the Market Revolution?	1. Factory system to produce goods faster and more efficiently: Samuel Slater's textile mills; Eli Whitney's interchangeable parts 2. New technology that increased connectivity and productivity: steam engines, telegraph, mechanical reaper 3. Transportation infrastructure that connected various regions and improved transportation of goods: Roads like the Cumberland Road, canals like the Erie Canal, railroads 4. Urbanization and immigration: Rapid city growth and cheap labor supply as people sought jobs and new opportunities in cities	• Robert Fulton's steamboat (1807); • Western land speculation & immigration • Lowell System in New England textile mills

© Heimler's History™ Please do not share or post online. Authorized use for school year 2025-2026.
*Advanced Placement® and AP® are trademarks registered and/or owned by the College Board, which was not involved in the production of, and does not endorse, this product.

For Essay writing help, go to
HEIMLER'S HISTORY
HEIMLERSHISTORY.COM

ANSWERS A MODERN DEMOCRACY

Guiding Question:	Answers from Video:	Additional Evidence/Examples
What were the three main ways early presidents and political parties defined and debated federal power?	1. Foreign Policy: Jefferson's Embargo Act and American neutrality 2. Federal Power: the constitutionality of the Louisiana Purchase, which doubled the size of the US and opened territory for settlement 3. The Power of the judicial branch: Marbury v. Madison established that the Court can determine constitutionality; McCulloch v. Maryland established that federal laws supersede state laws	• War of 1812 divided Federalists and Democratic Republicans, with Federalists largely opposing the war • Debates over constitutionality of the National Bank & internal improvements • Gibbons v. Ogden (1824) strengthened federal power over interstate commerce • Nullification crisis: state vs federal power
How did democracy expand in the early 1800s, especially in the aftermath of the Panic of 1819?	Gradual elimination of property qualifications for voting dropped in a desire to be able to hold institutions accountable	• Dorr Rebellion in Rhode Island (1841) • Market Revolution contributed to dropping property requirements, as more people worked in urban, wage jobs • Women and Black Americans excluded

© Heimler's History™ Please do not share or post online. Authorized use for school year 2025-2026.
*Advanced Placement® and AP® are trademarks registered and/or owned by the College Board, which was not involved in the production of, and does not endorse, this product.

For Essay writing help, go to
HEIMLER'S HISTORY
HEIMLERSHISTORY.COM

ANSWERS A MODERN DEMOCRACY cont'd

Guiding Question:	Answers from Video:	Additional Evidence/Examples
How did the expansion of voting impact American politics and elections?	Need to appeal to more voters and interests New political parties: Jackson's Democrats favored limited federal power, and Clay's National Republicans favored more government power Jackson's appeal to the "common man" helped him win the 1828 election	• Voter turnout doubled by 1828 and reached 80% by 1840 election • Nominating conventions replaced caucuses (1832)
How did Jackson change executive power during his presidency?	Nullification Crisis: Force Bill upheld federal authority over states when South Carolina tried to nullify the Tariff of 1828 Bank War: Vetoed charter renewal of the Second Bank; created "pet banks" that rewarded loyalty Indian Removal: Ignored Worcester v. Georgia and enforced the Indian Removal Act, leading to the Trail of Tears and forced removal of Indigenous Americans to Oklahoma, and the Black Hawk War (1832) Internal Improvements: Opposed federal spending on roads like the Cumberland Road, arguing Congress did not have the right to insert itself in local economic affairs	• Maysville Road veto (1830) • Specie Circular (1836) requiring federal land purchases be made in silver • Panic of 1837 • Whig Party in opposition to Jackson • John C. Calhoun's states' rights doctrine

© Heimler's History™ Please do not share or post online. Authorized use for school year 2025-2026.
*Advanced Placement® and AP® are trademarks registered and/or owned by the College Board, which was not involved in the production of, and does not endorse, this product.

For Essay writing help, go to
HEIMLER'S HISTORY
HEIMLERSHISTORY.COM

ANSWERS A MODERN SOCIETY

Guiding Question:	Answers from Video:	Additional Evidence/Examples
How did the Market Revolution reshape society and gender roles?	New social classes like business elites and middle class Separate spheres ideology among middle class: men worked outside the home; women confined to domestic roles in the "Cult of Domesticity" Working class defined by wage labor, sometimes looked down upon as "wage slavery." Many were immigrants working in factories in cities Backlash against immigration and rise of nativism, particularly Irish Catholics who were seen as "un-American" Young women increasingly entered the workforce in textile mills like the Lowell Mills. Offered opportunity but also poor working conditions, leading to creation of Lowell Female Labor Reform Association	• Lowell Mill Strike (1836) • Commonwealth v. Hunt establishes legality of unions to improve working conditions • Know Nothing Party founded as anti-immigrant party (1844)
How did art and philosophy reflect a new national identity?	Romanticism in art: celebrated emotion and nature; Hudson River School painted majestic American landscapes; James Fenimore Cooper romanticized the frontier; Greek Revival architecture celebrated democracy Transcendentalism movement (Emerson, Thoreau) stressed individualism and communion with nature	• Nathaniel Hawthorne and Herman Melville explored moral themes • Early American music, including hymns, African American spirituals, and operas

© Heimler's History™ Please do not share or post online. Authorized use for school year 2025-2026.
*Advanced Placement® and AP® are trademarks registered and/or owned by the College Board, which was not involved in the production of, and does not endorse, this product.

For Essay writing help, go to
HEIMLER'S HISTORY
HEIMLERSHISTORY.COM

ANSWERS A MODERN SOCIETY cont'd

Guiding Question:	Answers from Video:	Additional Evidence/Examples
How did the Second Great Awakening reflect a changing American identity?	Emphasized moral improvement and social perfection; camp meetings and preaching of Charles Finney's revivalism spread in northern cities and taught that Christians could use morality to usher in a better society New faiths like Mormonism emerged after Joseph Smith created the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Mormons eventually migrated to Utah under Brigham Young to establish a theocracy.	• Burned over district • Seventh Day Adventists • African Methodist Church
What were the effects of the Second Great Awakening?	Formation of Utopian societies like Oneida to create communities of perfection and sinless life Start of the temperance movement to limit or ban alcohol, especially among the working class Women's rights movement started with many women in the abolitionist movement; Seneca Falls Convention (1848) culminated in the Declaration of Sentiments to advocate for equal rights	• Expansion of public education/common schools supported by reformers like Horace Mann • American Antislavery Society • Dorothea Dix (asylum/prison reform); • Shakers (religious utopianism) • Brook Farm community

© Heimler's History™ Please do not share or post online. Authorized use for school year 2025-2026.
*Advanced Placement® and AP® are trademarks registered and/or owned by the College Board, which was not involved in the production of, and does not endorse, this product.

For Essay writing help, go to
HEIMLER'S HISTORY
HEIMLERSHISTORY.COM

ANSWERS BOTH SINGULAR & PLURAL

Guiding Question:	Answers from Video:	Additional Evidence/Examples
How did the American System seek to unify the national economy?	Clay's American System proposed federal funding for roads/canals, a protective tariff, and a national bank to link regions. Promoted interdependence but caused sectional tensions	• Internal improvements like the Erie Canal • Tariff of 1816 • Second Bank of the US • Tariff of 1828
How did the Missouri Compromise reveal growing sectionalism?	Missouri applied for statehood as a slave state, threatening the balance of power in Congress. Maine admitted as free state; 36°30' line divided future slave/free territories. Maintained balance but deepened division and only put off solution	• Tallmadge Amendment attempted to restrict further spread of slavery (failed) • Gradual emancipation in North • Sectional debates over new western land • Gag rule (1836) forbid discussion of slavery petitions in Congress
How did attitudes toward slavery diverge between North and South?	South: Shifted from "necessary evil" to "positive good" and more benevolent than "wage slavery" in North; white supremacy united classes North: Growth of abolitionist movement, Abolitionists like David Walker and William Lloyd Garrison called for immediate emancipation and called attention to the evils of slavery	• American Colonization Society promoted sending free and enslaved African Americans to Africa (Liberia)

© Heimler's History™ Please do not share or post online. Authorized use for school year 2025-2026.
*Advanced Placement® and AP® are trademarks registered and/or owned by the College Board, which was not involved in the production of, and does not endorse, this product.

For Essay writing help, go to
HEIMLER'S HISTORY
HEIMLERSHISTORY.COM

ANSWERS BOTH SINGULAR & PLURAL cont'd

Guiding Question:	Answers from Video:	Additional Evidence/Examples
How did enslaved and free Black Americans resist oppression?	Covert acts (work slowdowns, maintaining culture) and overt acts (rebellions like Nat Turner's). Free Blacks advocated abolition through writing and activism.	• Frederick Douglass' North Star • David Walker's Appeal • Gabriel Prosser's Rebellion (1800) • Haitian Revolution (1791-1804)

© Heimler's History™ Please do not share or post online. Authorized use for school year 2025-2026.
*Advanced Placement® and AP® are trademarks registered and/or owned by the College Board, which was not involved in the production of, and does not endorse, this product.